

Going to Alaska

I'm going to Alaska

Going to Alaska

I'm going to Alaska

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna see some glaciers

Gonna see some caribou

Gonna see a bear or two

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna swim in an ice-cold lake

Gonna see some waterfalls

Gonna eat fresh brook trout sweet

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna sleep out under the stars

Gonna see the Northern Lights

Gonna leave the world behind

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna see an osprey fly

Above a lake of turquoise blue

Gonna hear the raven's call

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna hear a wolf pack howl

At a sliver of the moon

Gonna raise my voice as well

Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna see some columbine

Gonna see the fireweed
Gonna eat fresh berries sweet
Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna see the Sheep Lick Rock
Out upon the mountainside
Gonna see the beaver swim
Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna see bright mushrooms there
Gonna smell the Labrador tea
Gonna drink from a glacial stream
Gonna have me an adventure

Gonna hike up to the heights
Gonna see what the eagle sees
Rivers sparkling far below
Gonna have me an adventure

Celebrating my sixty years
On this planet green and blue
With some good friends by my side
We're gonna have us an adventure

We're going to Alaska
Going to Alaska
We're going to Alaska
Gonna have us an adventure
