

CREATIVE INPUT

Trinity

Frank Henninger

There are but three powers in this universe-
Undeniable truth
Irresistible beauty
Unconditional love

These are the divine elements of which
All things, All awareness, All thought
All belief, All philosophy, All experience
And all reality are ultimately made

Undeniable truth is found
In all places
In all people
In all religions,
And in all sacred practices

Irresistible beauty is everywhere we look
With our eyes, With our hearts, With our spirits,

And was present when the universe
Was but a condensed ball of star matter
That then exploded into the infinite expression
Of all beings and objects, Across all time and distance

Love is the promise, And the premise,
Of all that is, ever was, and ever will be . . .

Love is the primal essence
The god particle, The quantum glue,
The creative energy, The divine urge
The unquenchable fire, The immortal presence
The sublime moment of singularity . . .

The unifying principle
Of all,
Of all,

Of ALL!

“All is spirit, Spirit is mind, Mind is one”
This truth leads us to our inner selves
The point of contact with our divinity

The one sacred presence in the universe
Is a cosmic trinity of truth, beauty and love
Three united expressions of one,

Of THE ONE,
Of me
Of you
Of us
Of them
Of everyone
Of every thing

We are it and it is we, And it is all that will ever be,

We are each a singular exquisite expression of this Divine Presence

I am a spiritual adventurer
Journeying through a universe
Of abundant Truth, Beauty, and Love

And so are you
And so is everyone
And so it is.
